'No choice' but to put rents up to £68.22

COUNCIL tenants claiming benefits in Cannock Chase will be hardest hit by rent rises of almost £4 a week, it has been claimed.

George Adamson, leader of the district council, says he is powerless to oppose a 5.8 per cent increase which is based on a calculation set by the Government. It will be brought in across the board for 5,500 tenants.

The average weekly charge will climb to £68.22, up £3.71. On average, tenants will have to pay £192.92 extra, or £3,547.44 over 12 months.

Benefits

While rents are being increased in line with the retail prices index, which includes mortgage interest payments, benefits and state pensions are going up at the rate of the consumer prices index.

CPI is half a per cent lower than RPI, prompting criticism from Labour leader Councillor Adamson.

"The Government is putting rents up alongside the retail prices index and putting benefits up with the consumer prices index, so people on benefits are losing out," he said.

"But it is not just people on benefits who will suffer because of this.We are concerned about the level of the rent increase, but we have no choice."

'SS' probe on MP continues

AN INQUIRY on the conduct of Cannock's MP, who attended a Nazi-themed stag party, is expected to be completed this month.

The investigation was launched by the Prime Minister into the conduct of Aidan Burley, who has apologised after he was photographed in December at a stag party in the French Alps where the groom was wearing an SS uniform.

Fitness instructor Claire Cotterill, who is offering free classes at Body Image

Free fitness classes offer

ANYONE looking to reignite their New Year resolutions and shed a few excess pounds is being urged to take advantage of a free week of fitness classes at a Great Wyrley studio.

Body Image, based at Landywood Enterprise Park, Holly Lane, will kick off a week of free sessions on Monday (February 5).

They will include zumba, kickboxing, boxercise, boot camp sessions, legs bums and tums, circuits, burlesque and a kettlebell class. Claire Cotterill, owner and manager, said Body Image offered an affordable and fun way for people to reach their fitness goals.

Claire said: "We are going to offer free entry for the first week to get people to see what we offer and realise there is a fun way to lose weight and keep fit in a comfortable private studio."

Demand

"Due to obesity being at an all time high in the UK, we appreciate that with expensive costs involved in monthly gym fees there is a large demand for more of a private fitness environment, where people can feel more comfortable and not be tied in to a lengthy contract."

On its usual rota the fitness studio also offers pole dancing fitness, adult ballet and street-dance, as well as one-to-one personal training.

Kick-off for pitch scheme at school

WORK has started on a new £700,000 community football project at a Cannock school.

In three months' time Cardinal Griffin Catholic RC High School will house a state-of-the-art third generation football pitch to be used seven days a week by several schools and football clubs.

The project, being undertaken by Greenfields Sport Surfaces UK, has been funded by Cardinal Griffin, Cannock Chase Council and the Football Foundation.

Third generation pitches are made of artificial grass and no other facility in Cannock Chase currently has a full-sized version.

Community

Cardinal Griffin head Michael Burrowes, said it would be a truly community facility, adding: "It is not for the school but for the whole of Cannock Chase and will benefit."

The pitch will be available to hire by the community during evenings and weekends.

Cannock Chase councillor Christine Mitchell, culture and sport leader at the local authority, said: "This exciting project is now coming to fruition."

The school still needs sponsors to help fund the project. Call the school on 01543 502215.

JOBS JOY IN STORE AS WORK TO START

WORK to make way for a giant Tesco at the heart of a Hednesford redevelopment has begun.

The supermarket will form the centre of the £50m Hednesford Gateway development.

By Harry Gottschalk

The site is being cleared ready for the construction of the 80,000 sq ft store, which will create around 600 jobs and is due to open in time for Christmas 2012 trading.

The Tesco store, built on stilts, will boast covered parking for 640 spaces beneath, similar to the Tesco Extra store in Lichfield, and is part of the 9.1 acre redevelopment of the Victoria Street area of the town.

It will sit alongside a terrace of shops, which together will deliver 38,000 sq ft of new commercial space. Community facilities are also being relocated from the old Aquarius ballroom.

Transform

St Modwen development surveyor Mark Watkins thanked people for their patience during the disruption.

He said: "This and the other shopping and leisure facilities will transform Hednesford town centre.

"As with all construction projects of this scale, the works have resulted in some disruption to car parking and infrastructure but we have striven to keep this to a minimum. We would like to thank the people of Hednesford for their patience and the support they have shown to the construction teams working on site."

Councillor Diane Todd, leader of the town centre regeneration, said: "The next stages of the redevelopment will take us a step closer to achieving our vision for Hednesford town centre.

"Victoria Shopping Park and Chase Gateway are on course to be completed this year which will deliver a major boost to the town."

At Chase Gateway, the other regeneration project in the town, there are further retail spaces available alongside the new Hednesford Bingo and a 170-space shoppers' car park. Victoria Street will close on Monday, February 6 as part of the Tesco work.

The closure will cover the middle section of Victoria Street, between its junction with Market Street and the proposed tie-in for the new link road near 'Greenslade' bungalow. All vehicles, except emergency services, will be unable to use Victoria Street.

The road is being shut while workers install a new roundabout and divert services such as sewer and water drains under the site.

Anti-violence campaign a success

A CAMPAIGN launched over Christmas to reduce alcohol-related violence across Cannock Chase has been hailed as a success by council bosses.

Chase Community Safety Partnership launched 'It's Never OK' campaign to tackle alcohol-related violence in the town centres and at home. The high-profile campaign highlighted the significant effects alcohol can have and raised awareness of domestic violence. As a result, it helped to reduce alcohol-related violence across the district by 22 per cent and domestic violence by 35per cent.

Staffordshire Women's Aid also saw a significant 59 per cent increase in reports of domestic violence compared with 2010.

Cannock Chase Council leader Councillor George Adamson, chairman of Chase Community Safety Partnership, said: "It is extremely impressive that this campaign has helped to reduce alcohol-related violence so significantly across the district. The campaign sent out a strong message that 'It's Never OK to commit any type of alcohol-related violence and it will not be tolerated."

Chief Inspector Carl Ratcliffe, Commander of Cannock Chase District Local Policing Team, said: "I saw the 'It's Never OK' campaign in action and it was extremely effective, highlighting in a creative way that any alcohol-related violence is not acceptable within Cannock Chase District."

For more information about the 'It's Never OK' campaign visit www.cannockchasedc.gov.uk/itsneverok or contact Kerry Wright, senior partnerships officer on 01543 464368.

'Sophisticated' car con gang sentenced

A CRIMINAL gang that sold stolen luxury cars in a £1.1m con has begun prison sentences totalling 32 years.

Forged paperwork was used to sell 45 vehicles stolen in car key burglaries in places including Cannock, Penkridge and Stafford.

The 'highly sophisticated' and 'well-planned' scam prompted a two-year-long investigation by three different forces including Staffordshire Police.

Cloned number plates and chassis were added to the cars which included Range Rovers, Mercedes, BMWs and Audis, while fake service stamps and books made them appear above board.

These were then advertised on the internet and many were sold through meetings on pub or hotel car parks.

But the crime only came to light when unwitting new owners tried to register the car with the DVLA.

The car cloning ring netted profits of £400,000 in two years.

Seven men pleaded guilty at Birmingham Crown Court to conspiracy to conceal, disguise or convert criminal property.

Paul Candelent – sentenced

Christopher Edwards – jailed

James Sheen – eight years

John Sheen – eight year stretch

Philip Blair – five years

Robert Blair – 65 months

Ringleaders

Brothers James and John Sheen and Philip and Robert Blair were all jailed yesterday for their part in the con.

Mark Allman, Edward Pines, Christopher Edwards and Paul Candelent were also sentenced.

James Sheen, aged 27, and brother John, 23, both of Shinfield, in Reading, were among the ringleaders. Both were jailed for eight years.

Sentencing them, Judge Murray Creed said: "This was quite plainly a highly-sophisticated and well-planned enterprise involving high value goods with significant gain.

"You were both involved at a higher organisational level."

Philip Blair, aged 32, of Catshill Road, Brownhills, was jailed for five years and six months while brother Robert, aged 23, of Parkside Road, Halesowen, was sentenced to five years and two months.

Christopher Edwards, aged 25, of Vernon Avenue, Brownhills, was locked up for two years and nine months.

Paul Candelent, aged 31, of Rainscar in Tamworth, was jailed for two years and six months, while Edward Pines, aged 46, of Marsh Farm, Luton, received a one-year suspended sentence for his part. Skip lorry driver Mark Allman, aged 47, formerly of Bolton Way, Bloxwich, was given a one-year suspended sentence after admitting a charge of money laundering.

He had allowed his bank account to be used to deposit money and pay to advertise cars in Autotrader.

Staffordshire Police welcomed the verdict. Speaking after the case Dc Alan Mann said: "It's satisfying and it vindicates all the hard work we have put in over two years. The eight-year sentences reflect the seriousness of what has happened.

"A lot of people have lost a lot of money and I think the judge has recognised that with the sentence today."

Judge Creed praised police forces in Staffordshire, Yorkshire and Humberside for their part in the investigation.

"I wish to commend the actions of the officers in this case," said the judge.

"It has involved Humberside and Staffordshire police and plainly, from what I have read and the work that was done in preparation for the trial, they deserve to be recognised."

Suspended

Edwards was also sentenced to nine months for stealing lead from Walsall's oldest church.

Edwards's co-accused Martin Wells, aged 36, of Terry Street, in Dudley, who was in no way connected to the car scam, was also given a 12-month jail term suspended for two years and will carry out 200 hours unpaid work for his part in the theft.

The pair stripped 30m of lead sheeting from the roof of St Matthew's Church, in Walsall town centre.

Dogs are wanted for blood register

NEW donors are being sought for a pet blood bank – and a Great Wyrley vets is inviting dog owners to find out more at an open day.

The Pet Blood Bank UK charity provides a national canine blood bank and is looking for donors in the Great Wyrley, Cannock and Walsall areas.

The 387 Veterinary Centre is staging the open day at its Walsall Road practice on Saturday, February 11.

Vet Hamish Duncan said: "Pet Blood Bank UK is literally a life-saving charity. My own springer spaniel required an emergency blood transfusion nine years ago.

"Pumpkin was suffering from an aggressive form of anaemia. She became very weak, pale and breathless, was urinating blood and was fading away. Without a transfusion, she would have died. Thanks to a canine donor, we had eight extra years with Pumpkin as part of our family."

To be eligible to donate, dogs need to be between one and eight-years-old, weigh more than 25kg, be fit and healthy and up to date with vaccinations, must never have travelled abroad and be good with people.

The 387 Veterinary Centre will be handing out leaflets and registration forms from 2-4pm at the open day.

Another cyclist guided rescue crews to his injured friend on the M7 track.

Relaunch of lottery by shops

HEDNESFORD traders' fundraising lottery has been revamped, and was launched with the help of the Cannock Chase MP.

Aidan Burley helped to launch the scheme with promoter Stef Cunningham from The Kitchen Cupboard.

The lottery has been revamped under the umbrella of Hednesford Traders' Association 2011 after a new licence was awarded by the district council. The new lotto has been set up to exclusively benefit local charities and good causes.

Stef said: "Depending on the success, more tickets will be made available. The more we sell, the bigger the prizes and greater the benefit for the community."

Mr Burley said: "It's great news that the new Lotto will be helping the community and it's great for Hednesford."

Tickets are now on sale now and are available at 16 "official retailer" venues in the town.

The draw will take place on the last Saturday of every month, starting on February 25. Winning numbers will be displayed inside the shops and also on HTA 2011's website and Facebook page.

A HOSPICE is looking for another 40 people to take part in a race across Cannock Chase next month.

The Katharine House Sponsored Endurance Challenge will start and end at Milford Common on March 11 when entrants will run an arduous 5.4 miles over nine gruelling hills

Event fundraiser James Lunney said: "It will really test the mettle of those taking part. We won't make the up-hill down dale run easy."

Entrance is £10 and runners must be aged at least 15. To enter call 01785 270808 or online at: www.khhospice.org.uk

Bins set alight

A BIN storage area at a cul-de-sac in Great Wyrley was set alight in a suspected deliberate attack. The refuse collection area outside the three-storey flats in The Hollies caught fire at around 1.50am on Saturday (January 28). It did not spread to the flats and no-one was injured.

Solicitor 'vindicated' over unfair dismissal

John Moore-Robinson

THE former head of Stafford Hospital's legal team says she feels vindicated after winning a two-year-battle against her former employers.

Solicitor Kate Levy was speaking following a tribunal where health chiefs at Mid Staffordshire NHS Foundation Trust admitted they had wrongfully sacked her.

Ms Levy was awarded a £103,400 settlement. She had argued she was right to suppress damning evidence from an inquest that would have revealed a doctor's failure to diagnose internal bleeding that led to the death of a patient. John Moore-Robinson, aged 20, from Coalville, Leicestershire, died hours after being sent home from Stafford Hospital in 2006 after a cycling accident on Cannock Chase that ruptured his spleen. Doctors failed to order a CT scan and instead sent him home with painkillers.

Ms Levy, aged 56, who was also the trust's company secretary, countered that her job was to protect the interests of the hospital.

Fellow solicitor Stuart Knowles, who was also accused, had left the trust for another job when the allegations emerged. Ms Levy was sacked. The pair were both cleared by the Solicitors Regulation Authority last October of any wrongdoing.

Speaking after Monday's tribunal David Lock, QC, for Ms Levy, said she did not have any duty to pass on information to the coroner. Her overriding duty had been to protect the hospital's interests.

Ms Levy, currently working as a legal consultant, said: "This decision shows the trust's allegations I had not been wrongfully dismissed are completely unjustified."

Burger chain's recruitment drive is boost for the young

FAST food giant McDonald's says almost a third of 180 new jobs to be created across Staffordshire as part of a new recruitment drive will go to first-time workers.

By Marion Brennan

Around 30 per cent of the vacancies will be aimed at apprentices as part of an initiative to help school-leavers get a first foothold on the jobs market and reduce youth unemployment.

Up to 70 of the posts will be created at an 85-seat drive-through restaurant in Rugeley.

Cannock Chase Council leader George Adamson said: "This is excellent news, particularly as McDonald's have assured us that the jobs will go to local people."

The Staffordshire jobs are among 2,500 being created nationally throughout the year by the restaurant chain, taking the company's UK workforce to 90,000.

Outlets

An extended period of investment over the last three years has given McDonald's a strong foothold in the UK as it refurbishes restaurants and opens new outlets.

Deputy prime minister Nick Clegg called the announcement "fantastic news" for the employment market.

"McDonald's has an excellent reputation for developing its staff with training and apprenticeship programmes," he added.

The chief executive officer of McDonald's UK Jill McDonald said the company hoped to help young people get onto the career ladder in a tough economic climate.

The new jobs build on the 13,500 the firm has created over the last three years.

Franchisee Sarah Mclean, who owns nine restaurants in Stafford, said: "The job market is tough, and young people are taking the biggest hit in a competitive market so I am pleased to be able to offer young people in Staffordshire the chance of a job.

"We have a fantastic education programme in place. Gaining nationally recognised qualifications whilst getting experience in the world of work means we can give young people a good grounding whether they stay and progress through the company or move on elsewhere."

McDonald's has awarded almost 35,000 qualifications, from maths and English certificates to apprenticeships and foundation degrees in the past five years.

Antipodean activities

YOUNGSTERS at a Cannock nursery went 'Down Under' to celebrate Australia Day last week. The children from Happy Tots, at Orbital Plaza, Bridgtown took part in a host of Antipodean activities, including making flags, boomerangs and didgeridoos, wearing cork hats, colouring in kangaroo pictures and making koala-bear masks.

Nursery manager Judy Kelly said: "Celebrating national days of other countries helps children learn about the world and other cultures, while also having lots of fun."

Raffle prize is free meal ticket for diners

Emily Reynolds and head chef James Platek at the Bridge House Hotel and restaurant in Penkridge where a raffle is being held for Katharine House Hospice

A FREE meal could be just the ticket for one lucky couple.

A Penkridge restaurant is organising a charity raffle, with a three-course meal and a bottle of wine up for grabs.

The Bridge House, at Stone Cross, is raising money for Katharine House Hospice. Tickets are £1 each and the draw will be made on Valentine's Day.

Bridge House owner Raj Dhanda said: "Katharine House is such a worthwhile local charity and we wanted to do something to raise money for them.

"We are hoping people will pop into the restaurant, enjoy a meal and buy some raffle tickets. We will make the draw on Valentine's Day."

Couples can each now enjoy a two course meal and a bottle of wine for just £22.

Customers can also have two meals for £10 Monday to Saturday 11am to 6pm and enjoy the Sunday Carvery from £7.95. Offers are also planned for Valentine's Day.

Raj and his wife Lomi took over The Bridgehouse last year and maintained the same staff including manager Irene Rabone who has worked there for the last 11 years.

A carvery is served all day on a Sunday, while the Bridge House also hosts a fish and chip supper on the last Thursday of every month.

VERNON Coleman's latest book lands on my desk. It has the snappy title: Anyone Who Tells you Vaccines Are Safe and Effective is Lying, Here's The Proof and proceeds to drive a cart and many horses through orthodox medicine.

Coleman is a former GP, born and educated in Walsall who now rages against the system. He has produced more than 100 books and makes claims which would get any doctor, nurse or consultant struck off for life.

If he's mad why isn't he in an asylum? If he's lying why is he not in court? If he's telling the truth, shouldn't we take him more seriously?

SKY News presenter Colin Brazier has infuriated those of a sensitive nature by suggesting transportation as a means of dealing with Britain's 120,000 "problem families." His idea is to ship them off to the Sandwich Islands in the South Atlantic.

Now, I venture to suggest that Brazier is a kindly soul and does not really think any such thing but is merely being provocative in order to make a point about a big national issue.

The problem these days is that large numbers of Britons have lost all sense of humour and proportion and seem to delight in taking offence at anything.

Sure enough, The Howard League for Penal Reform solemnly responds to Brazier's view with: "There is a world of difference in the state intervening to improve troubled communities and the state intervening to deport our citizens to far-flung corners of the globe."

Well, of course there is. There is also a huge gap between wickedness and satire. Let us all get real.

AS a general rule, if you don't know who said something, it is safe to attribute it to Winston Churchill. But it doesn't always work.

A reader assures me that Churchill once said he enjoyed travelling on Italian liners because, if there was a crisis, "there is none of this nonsense about women and children first".

In fact, this quote seems to date back to a joke by "An American traveller" in 1917 and has since been attributed to Noel Coward, Somerset Maugham and a gossip columnist, O O McIntyre. And in most cases it referred not to Italian liners but to French liners.

Police fear murder suspect may be abroad

Suspect John Anslow

DETECTIVES hunting murder suspect John Anslow fear he may have fled the country.

Officers have received almost 100 calls about the whereabouts of the 31-year-old Tipton man, who has been on the run for more than a week. He is accused of killing Burntwood businessman Richard Deakin.

DS Martin Evans said a large team of officers were committed to catching the fugitive. He said: "We've had almost 100 calls from across the country which is a really encouraging response."

A 44-year-old man remains on police bail after being arrested on suspicion of assisting an offender.

Anslow is accused of killing Mr Deakin at his home in Chasetown in July 2010. The father-of-two ran a Walsall skip hire firm. Four other men have also been charged with murder. A £10,000 reward is being offered for information that leads to Anslow's arrest.

Olympic event in park aims to be a knockout

HEDNESFORD Park is to be transformed in to a sports arena with a difference this summer, under new plans revealed this week.

The Friends of Hednesford Park has approached the town council with a view to hosting an 'It's a Knockout' style event to mark the London Olympics.

Friends chairman Lynn Evans said the event should attract around 400 contestants.

She said: "We are looking to enhance community involvement and participation and instil some pride and sense of belonging through events in the park.

"We are hoping to host an Olympic inspired event in August and the theme is a family-orientated 'It's a Knockout' where we are hoping to involve up to 360 people as competitors.

The Friends group is currently submitting a bid to the lottery's Awards for All scheme to help fund the event.

Classic

However, to get the idea off the ground, around £1,200 needs to be raised as a deposit.

"As a newly constituted group we do not have the financial means to do this," added Lynn.

The Friends will attend the next meeting of Hednesford Town Council to speak to local councillors about what the organisation can do to raise the cash.

The event has been inspired by the classic comedy game show, which ran from 1966-88 on BBC One, and 1990-91 on ITV.

It featured teams representing a town or city competing in amusing and, often random games, while dressed in foam rubber suits.

People who think they may be able to help can contact The Friends of Hednesford Park by sending an email to friendsofhednesfordpark@hotmail.co.uk

Toddler group third birthday

Celebrating the third anniversary of Friends of Longford Parent and Toddler Group

PARENTS and toddlers have celebrated the third anniversary of a group that operates from a Cannock primary school.

The group meets at Longford Primary in Ascot Drive on a Tuesday morning and is open for those up to the age of three, along with their mums or dads.

It has proved popular since it was launched in 2009 by the Friends of Longford, giving youngsters a chance to gather and have fun while giving parents the chance to catch up. Liz Lynch, head of the Friends of Longford, said: "It is a great opportunity for all mums and dads to socialise together while the children have fun."

Emma Stote, head of Longford Primary, said the initiative had allowed the school to build links with the community.

"It is lovely to see we are providing provision from birth and it is great to offer our hall to widen links," she said.

Fitness for free on visits to Chase

VISITORS to Cannock Chase can get fit for free thanks to the installation of outdoor fitness equipment.

The apparatus was installed at Cannock Wood by Lichfield-based Beautiful Gardens following a £4,500 grant from Staffordshire Council Council's Community Wellbeing Fund.

It was officially opened by Staffordshire county councillor Matthew Ellis, cabinet member for adults and wellbeing.

Simon Roberts, owner of Beautiful Gardens, said: "This equipment is a great way to encourage people to get fit for free."

He added it had been put next to the children's play area so that, instead of standing around getting cold, adults could work out while watching the children.

"In the next few months we are planning a campaign to encourage more areas to have outdoor fitness equipment," he said.

The equipment includes three pieces of apparatus, each designed to boost overall fitness levels as well as strengthen muscles for two users at a time.

Stamp of approval for firm

AIDAN Burley MP has paid tribute to what he has called a "truly inspiring" local firm during a recent visit.

The Cannock Chase Conservative visited Mailcoms Ltd, an independent, Royal Mail-approved franking machine supplier and maintainer, based in Cannock – the only one of its kind between Birmingham and Manchester.

The firm, which employs 12 people, has invested nearly £500,000 in new premises for the business. Mr Burley was shown around by managing director Des McManus, who had originally set up the business with his wife from their Cannock home in 2006.

The firm now has an annual turnover of more than £1m and is the largest online retailer in the UK of franking machine supplies.

Mailcoms Ltd will shortly become the first firm in the UK to develop the technology and equipment to offer Franking Ink cartridge recycling, remanufacturing and refilling approved by Royal Mail. Two more jobs will be advertised by the company later in the year.

Mr Burley said: "It was a genuine honour to be asked to attend the opening of the new premises for a company which is clearly thriving."

Con trick on elderly lady

A BOGUS council official stole cash from an elderly woman after conning his way into her Cannock home.

The distraction burglary happened in Heath Hayes on Wednesday, January 25 between 10.30 and 11am.

The man claimed to be from the council and said he needed to cut back the hedge and replace some fencing.

After entering to discuss the work, he requested a drink and then stole a large amount of mon-ey while the woman was distracted.

The offender is white, aged 30-40, with fair to mid-brown hair. He is 5ft 9in to 6ft tall, of slim to average build and wore a "grubby" dark blue waterproof jacket.

Night of comedy

A NIGHT of comedy is being held at St Matthews Sports and Social Club in Burntwood on Saturday, February 4. It has been organised by Burntwood St Matthews Cricket Club and features Al Rudge, Harriet Dyer and Chris Purchase. Tickets are £5 and available on the door.

Plea to county over Olympic celebrations

PEOPLE are being sought to organise Olympic-themed celebrations in Staffordshire in preparation for the 2012 Games and torch relay.

There are fewer than 200 days to go until the world's top athletes converge on the UK for the London games.

The county council is appealing to schools, community groups and others to get involved by planning a celebration.

Ten Staffordshire towns and villages will welcome the Olympic flame in May and June as it passes through the county on its 8,000-mile route to London for the official start. Theses include Great Wyrley and Lichfield as well as Stafford, Gnosall, Haughton, Streethay and Hopwas.

County council leader Councillor Philip Atkins said: "The games are for everyone and we want to make sure all our communities are included.

"It's also a great opportunity for Staffordshire to shine," he added.

The Local Leaders' campaign is aimed at getting as many people as possible involved. Ideas include planting an Olympic-themed garden, organise a sports quiz and inviting the neighbours round for a games-inspired barbecue. Councillor Pat Corfield, cabinet member for communities, said: "We know there are lots of fantastic volunteers ready and willing to get involved as we have had over 700 nominations for the Volunteering Staffordshire awards which was a fantastic response."

Cultures

He added: "We also want schools to get involved by signing up to Get Set, the official London 2012 education programme. Schools can adopt a country, support them during the games and learn about their people, languages and cultures or even stage their own version of the torch relay with a host of resources available.

"The Olympics are very much a national event and the torch relay presents a wonderful opportunity for people both on and off the route to take part.

"Staffordshire will benefit from participating in the games and we will continue to play our part in promoting the county as part of the build up to this spectacular sporting occasion."

Artist's image unveiled of £10m facelift at academy

AN ARTIST'S impression of how a Hednesford secondary school will look after a £10m facelift has been unveiled. A BMX track and a four-court sports hall, as well as new art and science facilities, form part of the £9.7m plans for Staffordshire University Academy.

An impression of the new academy

Planning chiefs at Cannock Chase Council were being asked to recommend the designs for the former Blake Valley Technology College at a meeting yesterday (Wednesday).

A proposed main access via a nearby cul-de-sac was expected to be vetoed. Officers say residents in Marina Crescent would not be able to park outside their own homes at peak times under the scheme.

The proposed development will take up less space than originally envisaged, allowing sporting facilities to be improved.

At the heart of the new design is a three-storey building, described as a learning zone with flexible spaces to support various sized groups. The academy will also have music, drama, art and science facilities.

Demolished

The school, which boasts TV presenter Kate Walsh as a former pupil, opened in the existing Blake Valley buildings in September.

Under the plans, most of the classrooms on the eastern side of the school dating from the 1960s and 1980s would be demolished together with four outbuildings.

The existing reception area with the main hall and changing rooms to the rear, refurbished in 2006, together with the sports hall and pool would be retained.

The reception would be remodelled and extended to form a restaurant with an adjoining external dining area.

But a report to the planning control committee says an objection is recommended for the inclusion of a new lit pedestrian access from Marina Crescent as the main way in for students.

The full application will be considered by the planning committee in March.

Programme of improvements

A £44M schools refurbishment programme will be rolled out across Staffordshire over the course of the next three years.

The county council is investing the cash on top of £9.7m it is spending on the Staffordshire University Academy in Hednesford. Bosses are putting together a detailed programme of works which will be finalised in the coming months.

Extensions to accommodate surging numbers will also be included. Also proposed is refurbishment and redecoration of outdated buildings.

New heating systems will also be installed within the next financial year with the aim of slashing energy bills.

The eight-figure investment is revealed in a report presented to the county council's cabinet at a meeting yesterday (Wednesday).

The report states: "The council is continuing to invest in education and skills. We are investing £9.7m in the Staffordshire University Academy, formerly the Blake high school, to provide a state-of-the-art facility.

"We will also invest around £40m over the next three years to maintain and improve school buildings.

Education boss Liz Staples welcomed the cash injection but said it was too early to say which schools would benefit.

"The capital investment in schools is really great news for the county and in particular for our pupils," she said.

Eight-mile ramble

THE latest trek by the Chase & Chase & District Group Ramblers will be an eight-mile moderate walk at Barton-under-Needwood. Meet at Hednesford rail station car park, Anglesey Street for a prompt 9am departure on Sunday, February 5. Leaders are Tom and Jen. Call 01889 586168.

Novel way to raise charity cash

Book lover Harpriya Kambo at the Newlife at Home store

TWO bookworms are needed to help run a charity's growing collection of novels and non-fiction tomes.

The Newlife at Home store in Cannock has expanded its book section and needs volunteers to price them up and organise the area. The expansion is part of an ongoing development at the Newlife at Home store in Hemlock Way which will see a new coffee area and larger sales floor.

Charity chief executive Sheila Brown OBE said: "This is much more than just about pricing up books. It's about helping more people share their books and give access to low-priced books to a wide audience.

"Books start at just 50p but raise hundreds of pounds every week for the charity."

The store offers a book "trading in" scheme where book donors are given vouchers to spend. Anyone wishing to help out can call Sarah Seabatch on 01543 468888.

Lorry load of trouble as quarrying set to resume

EXCAVATORS have been given the go-ahead to quarry an area in Cheslyn Hay the size of 15 football pitches.

Hundreds of HGVs will flood the village each week for decades after the plans to resume operations at Campions Wood Quarry, close to homes, were approved.

A hundred lorries each day are set to use the 30-acre site near Cheslyn Hay Sport & Community High School and the village's 350-pupil primary school. More than 2.6 million tons will be dug out of the quarry over 30 years up to 2042. Concerns over traffic, dust and noise have been raised by residents and councillors who say the news the quarry will be brought into use, 15 years after it was last active, has come completely out of the blue.

Boundary

Up to 2,000 tons of material will be removed daily, around a third of which will be clay to make bricks and ceramic tiles. Lorries will run to and from the site, off Wolverhampton Road, from 7am-7pm on weekdays, and from 7am-5pm on Saturdays.

A substantial boundary between the dig site and homes will work as a buffer zone, keeping noise within acceptable limits, Secretary of State Eric Pickles ruled. He has ordered the installation of wheel-wash facilities at the site while a population of great crested newts must be relocated.

Once conditions are met work could start immediately.

Builder Scott Kelly, of Falcon Close said the resumption of quarrying would be 'a real pain.'

The 39-year-old father-of-one said. "Just down the road from the quarry you've got the school and during the school run it's crazy. It will be a real pain with that number of lorries every day."

Campions Wood Quarry in Cheslyn Hay, close to villagers' homes

Quality of life disrupted

RESUMING excavations at the Campions Wood Quarry will reduce residents' quality of life for a generation, it has been claimed.

Secretary of State Eric Pickles approved a 30-year mineral extraction programme for the site, which will see more than 2.6 million tons being dug out by 2042. The quarry has been out of use for 15 years.

Cheslyn Hay parish council chairman Colin Davison admitted he was powerless to oppose Mr Pickles' decision. He said: "This will interfere with the quality of people's lives.

"It will bring a lot of mud into the road, create noise and cause all the traffic disruption. But there's nothing we can do, we are stuck with this."

Cheslyn Hay Sport and Community High School headteacher John Martin pledged to work with the county council and excavators to minimise the impact on the school.

Tony Coleman and Paul Yates, from Lovell Partnerships, promote the campaign

STAFF at a Cannock company have lent their support to the We Want Any Bra campaign.

Lovell Partnerships, based at Hawks Green, provides kitchens, bathroom adaptations, roofing and external doors to Cannock Chase Council-owned properties. Lovell spokesman Debbie Adams said both organisations were getting behind the initiative.

She said: "In the true spirit of partnering we have come together to support breast cancer research."

People are being asked to donate a bra, with £1 in each cup, to back the appeal which supports Breast Cancer Care. All the money raised will go to help people affected by breast cancer get the best treatment, information and support they need. People can take their bras to Pleasant Acres, in Watling Street.

MP voices dismay as A&E unit stays shut

CANNOCK'S MP has voiced his dismay over the delayed re-opening of Stafford hospital's Accident & Emergency department. The unit will not open until May at the earliest.

By Marion Brennan

At a public meeting last Thursday night (January 26), Mid Staffordshire NHS Foundation Trust chief executive Lyn Hill-Tout said she was "75 per cent optimistic" that the overnight A&E unit would re-open by the middle of that month, two-and-a-half months later than planned.

The trust has succeeded in recruiting the required six consultants to run the department but still lacks enough junior doctors.

The decision to delay the re-opening was criticised at last week's meeting at Cannock's Civic Centre.

Shortage

But Mrs Hill-Tout stressed the board was committed to re-opening the department round-the-clock, but could not give guarantees when that would be.

She said: "I can't knit junior doctors, there is a national shortage. But we've made some progress and I'm 75 per cent optimistic that we will re-open A&E in May."

Cannock Chase Aidan Burley said he was disappointed by the news.

He said: "This announcement by Mid Staffs Trust is very disappointing and confirms my original fear that three months was a hopelessly optimistic timescale.

"Local people will understandably feel let down by this further delay, which in itself was given "only a 75 per cent" chance of being successful.

"Longer term, I believe there needs to be a more permanent solution to the situation at Mid Staffs which may involve closer collaboration with another Trust," he said.

"In the meantime, I will continue to work with the Trust to ensure the Hospital's A&E department is fully opened as soon as possible."

Getting the hump over road safety measures

OH, the irony of the front page article (January 19) entitled 'Speeding Blitz in Danger Road'.

Traffic calming measures are called for on Keys Park Road. Why did the county council not look at this before embarking on their mission to install calming measures including ramps and humps along the entire thoroughfare through Heath Hayes village?

Despite a packed public consultation in November – where villagers and tradespeople made their feelings clear that the £135,000 scheme was not wanted on Hednesford Road – the council decided we were going to get the humps and our protests were swatted away like flies.

Keys Park Road is a problem and the money earmarked for Hednesford Road would have been more wisely allocated to this area.

Playing politics with our NHS

DAVID Cameron's ambition to turn NHS hospitals into private businesses by allowing them to make 49 per cent of their income – and filling half of their beds – with private patients has now been made public.

The NHS will never be the same again if the Tories get their way. We have to continue to take the government to task over its privatisation plans. We must not stand by and let David Cameron turn our precious NHS into a US-style system, where hospitals are more interested in profits than people. With the NHS able to devote half of their beds and theatre time to private patients, people are beginning to see how our hospitals will never be the same again if the Conservatives' plans get through Parliament.

Time is running out for the NHS but it's not too late. If the public and our healthcare professionals stand together, we can stop this Americanisation of the NHS. People in Britain are rightly proud of our health service. We want health care to be free to all at the time and point of need .

The Conservatives' plans put this at risk and are opposed by most healthcare professionals and by the vast majority of people. It is time the government stopped playing politics with OUR health service.

Questions over Civic Service

THE question was raised at Great Wyrley parish council as to why previous members had not been invited to the Civic Service last October.

The response was that the chairman had looked at the invitation list and had decided to restrict invitations this year to current parish councillors, village organisations and chairman of local parish councils. This had been done in order to limit the cost to the taxpayer.

Would the chairman care to publish a full list of those attending to show how public money was spent? I believe it was a fact that people not described in the above attended so lets have an accurate record of the event.

Maybe if it is shown that the above is not actually true the chairman would be prepared to resign from the parish council for both misleading the public and wasting public money

Plea on Fellowship

MAY I draw attention to any ex-members of St John Ambulance in Burntwood – or anyone who wishes to support the work of SJA but not get actively involved in first aid duties – of the existence of the St John Fellowship?

The Fellowship was initially set up in 1983 as a social organisation for those who had retired from active involvement with St John Ambulance to keep in touch with each other and the organisation.

More recently, it has become open to anyone, no age limit, and members not only get together socially but can also get involved in fundraising, PR, catering, acting in support roles for the uniformed members and as casualties, markers etc at competitions.

The Burntwood branch of the Fellowship formed two years ago and we would welcome new members, whatever their previous involvement. Please call 01543 670822.

Putting buck on hold

WOLVERHAMPTON Council has developed a novel interpretation of 'the buck stops here'. 'Putting the buck on permanent hold' allows town hall executives an indeterminate time to deal with awkward questions from the public.

Last September a vehicle was driven in front of me as I ran on the track at Aldersley. After further incidents, I received an unconvincing apology from the district manager for parks and green spaces which failed to address the main issue: 'why is the ground maintenance contractor allowed to carry out work while the track is used by people who have paid for the privilege?'

I asked this question on October 19 and its receipt was acknowledged by the 'Corporate Complaints Co-ordinator'. Since then there has been silence. A case of gross discourtesy or selective amnesia?

Butchers provides a breath of fresh air

A CHANGE to your normal letters about politics. In a previous edition, there was a piece about the new Whitehouse Brothers meat supermarket.

We have paid a couple of visits since it opened, and I must say it is a breath of fresh air. The prices are excellent value for money, and meat is second to none. Quality products, the sausages are amazing and they offer things such as fresh faggots which are hard to come by.

I have always been put off shopping at butchers, I have never quite understood about asking for weights of things on offer. This takes all that away, and offers a refreshing alternative to the supermarket shop. The staff are friendly and really helpful.

I am looking forward to summer to see what they have on offer during the barbecue season. We should all support local companies in their bid to succeed, and not forgetting that being a butcher is a dying art.

Stop in, don't drink

AS I wrote to you in 2007: "Be afraid, be very afraid, don't think it will end here; once the health fascists have forced us all to give up smoking they will start on alcohol." Well looks what's happening. Clearer labelling, fewer units, two dry days. What next, all drinks in plain packaging or kept below the counter where we can't see them? Stop in, stop smoking, stop drinking, stop fat, stop salt. Leave me alone.

£1-a-meal boss calls time on historic pub

Landlord Tony Rabbitts at the Four Crosses in Watling Street

THE boss of an historic Cannock pub that became known for its recession-busting £1 meal deals is calling last orders.

Landlord Tony Rabbitts is losing £800 a week at the Four Crosses, on the A5 at Hatherton and is now calling time.

The pub dates back more than 400 years and hit the headlines in 2008 after introducing a cut-price menu, with meals priced just £1. These went as cheap as 50p for a period, with Christmas dinners at £2.

In 2009 nearly 900 people took advantage of the festive meal offer. Despite an increase in custom, trade was down 30 to 40 per cent after the summer, so prices were dropped even further for a time.

Mr Rabbitts is now quitting the pub from March 1 after 10 years at the helm, putting a question mark over its future. He has run the business with wife Kay and their 28-year-old son Ben and daughter Jessica, 24.

Mr Rabbitts, aged 52, said although business was good over weekends he had struggled to attract enough trade throughout the week.

"It will be a sad moment as it is a family thing," he said."But with the drop in trade we can't survive. It is a lovely building but it has been costing us £800 a week and we can't sustain that. We are not sure what we are going to do next."

Mr Rabbitts had initially been preparing to give up the pub after seeing trade plummet and bills soar in the wake of the smoking ban.

A review of village history from the 30s to Millennium

IN 1969, it is claimed, more children were born to mothers in Great Wyrley than anywhere else in England.

MEMORY LANE

By Mark Shipp

Today, the village has a population of more than 11,000 and its history is chronicled in the Great Wyrley review, which features news and photographs from the 1930s to the Millennium.

Compiled by Gary Smith, chairman of Great Wyrley Local History Society, the review is part of a group project to publish a book later this year. He said: "This review has tried to bring a little bit of history in print. It has attempted to portray a graphic content of 70 years of the village, and of the country at large."

The seven decades of snippets begin with Leslie Mitchell, who was cycling along Landywood Lane when a stray horse came out of a field, missing three pedestrians and knocking Mr Mitchell from his bike. After identifying the horse, its owner was later fined five shillings for allowing the horse to stray. Slippery roads were also causing a concern for the parish council.

In November 1944, it was reported that Great Wyrley folk spent £250,000 on beer in a year. The population was 4,000. A number of events from the time still ring true today such as in 1958 when a number of travellers' caravans arrived off Landywood Lane.

Moving onto the 60s, and there were complaints about speeding buses. Councillors were also concerned about the disappearance of reflectors from posts at Shants Hill. Katie Boyle greeted crowds at the opening of Great Wyrley Shopping Centre.

A hoaxer made the news in the 1970s, being fined £50 and put on probation for two years for claiming there was a bomb at Landywood Post Office. Despite a fire at St Mark's Church, one particular Sunday service in May 1977 still went ahead. In 1978, David Linford donated a piece of land to the scout group for a new hut.

More than 500 pensioners received concessionary bus passes in January 1981, a decade that also saw gallons of sludge flood homes on Walsall Road after a water main burst. The Duchess of Gloucester opened Great Wyrley Day Centre and work began on a new £85,000 clubhouse at Hazel Lane.

Seven people were cautioned in Streets Lane in 1993 as speeding became a problem. Fast forward four years and Jubilee Close residents won a campaign for a roundabout between Gorsey Lane and Hilton Lane Lane because of speeders. Unemployment was also on the rise with Great Wyrley and neighbouring Cheslyn Hay among the worst blackspots.

Past and present pictures of village landmarks also feature. For details call Gary on 01922 418546.

Firm lands million pound submarine fleet contract

A HIGH-TECH defence electronics firm has secured a major contract for work on the Royal Navy's nuclear submarine fleet.

Ultra Electronics, of Rugeley is to supply millions of pounds of control systems for the submarine reactors, which are made by Rolls-Royce.

Ultra's 200-strong workforce at the Towers Business Park, also won a major reactor control contract in the summer. Both contracts have come from Rolls-Royce and the total value of the work now stands at £27m.

Ultra chief executive Rakesh Sharma said: "I am very pleased that Ultra has been awarded further contracts for the manufacture of our specialist reactor control equipment. We have been successfully partnered with Rolls-Royce for over six years. This is just one example of where Ultra's approach to developing strategic partnerships on long-term programmes has driven growth."

The latest contract boost follows the start of work on a new motor test and development facility at the Rugeley plant. That was launched with a royal visit from the Duke of Kent, who ceremonially dug the first sod.

PMES, is one of 28 businesses within Ultra, and has grown significantly over the last five years with turnover now more than £44m a year. The company, which has taken on 70 new staff this year, is still trying to fill 30 vacancies, mainly for skilled engineers.

PMES moved into its 50,000sq ft, £5.5m premises three years ago.

Clients quick to respond to salon's charity raffle

A RUGELEY salon raised £250 for the town's Community First Responders. Gill Collier Hair Salon ran a raffle for a pair of GHD hair straighteners. Long-standing salon client Betty Duncan drew out the winning ticket and the money was handed over to the Responders.

The Rugeley CFR team are volunteers that give up their spare time to provide emergency life support. Their geographical remit also covers outlying areas like Armitage with Handsacre, Longdon, Kings Bromley and Colton.

Salon owner Gill said: "We wanted to raise money for a good cause and we decided on the Community First Responders. A lot of our clients come from these areas so we know if they need it we will have done our bit to support them."

Safety first for children

Pc Neil Coffe pictured with his son Lewis, front and Charlie Griffiths and Susie Peers as he holds a road safety day at Horn End Nursery

YOUNGSTERS were on their best behaviour when a policeman attended their nursery to give a lesson on road safety.

Horn End Nursery, in Wharf Road, Rugeley, hosted Pc Neil Coffe for its Beep Beep Day, an event organised by road safety charity Brake.

Pc Coffe explained how police would help out at the scene of a road traffic accident and then let the youngsters look around his car and turn on the police siren.

He also taught children how they should cross the road, before giving them high-visibility jackets to take home.

Staff member Becky Murphy said the children really enjoyed the visit.

"They were so excited and were itching to tell their mums and dads all about it," she added.

Clubhouse project set to be a winner

THE finishing post is in sight for Rugeley Rugby Club in its bid to raise cash for a new clubhouse. More than £1,000 was added to the coffers after a fundraising race night.

By Tim Spiers

The club is looking to build the clubhouse at its St Augustine's field ground and the race night raised a total of £1,310. However, sponsors are still needed to help complete the project.

More than 85 people turned up for the race night, which brought in £607. This was added to by a raffle, which raised £83, while a shirt signed by England international Tom Wood fetched a further £90 at auction.

Changing

The race of the evening, an auction race, was sponsored by "C" residential of Rugeley, and saw £130 in prize money up for grabs.

A club spokesman said it was hoped the changing areas and showers would be installed by the time it hosts its sevens tournament in June, with the function room and communal areas to follow later.

Help is coming from the Staffs RFU and Coalfields Regeneration Fund, but around 5,000 is still needed. Anyone that can help is asked to call Martin De Ridder on 07889 088558.

In a lather to raise funds

A RUGELEY firefighter has organised a fundraising car wash this weekend. Matt Greensill is raising cash in the run-up to the London Marathon which he is taking part in on April 22. He is supporting the Fire Fighters Charity and the Robert Jones Agnus Hunt Orthopaedic Hospital, in Oswestry. Matt will also be selling raffle tickets at the car wash, which will take place at Rugeley Fire Station, in Bryans Lane, on Saturday (February 4) from 10am to 4pm. Rallying call to traders ignored

ONLY ten traders responded to a rallying call to try to boost business in Cannock, says the disappointed town centre manager. More than 100 invitations had been sent out.

Natal Chapman called a meeting to discuss re-establishing the traders' association and re-branding the town's lotto scheme. The meeting came just weeks after disappointing festive sales figures were revealed. Despite more than 100 letters going out, only a handful attended.

She said: "It wasn't a good turnout, we only had about 10 people turn up and I sent out more than 100 invites.

"People need to realise these things really benefit the whole community."

Mrs Chapman says a variety of roles needed to be filled for Cannock Traders Association, including the position of vice chairman. Cannock's failing lottery scheme is to be re-branded after traders decided to give the scheme another go. The dwindling initiative divides a cash pot 50-50 between one lucky winner and community projects.

Traders are now looking at making the initiative bi-monthly .

The next meeting will be held on Monday, February 6 at the Premier Suite at Bar Sport, in High Green, Cannock, from 6.30pm.

Fake cigarettes racket pair jailed

TWO Chase men have been jailed for their role in a counterfeit cigarette racket. Phillip Hall, of Rugeley, and Christopher Burns, of Burntwood, were involved in a racket capable of making up to 625 million counterfeit cigarettes a year.

It could have also produced five million pouches of fake hand rolling tobacco

Hall and Burns were jailed for a total of 34 months for tax evasion offences over the £131m-a-year plot.

The 12-man scam was foiled when HM Revenue & Customs criminal investigators swooped and closed down the fully equipped cigarette factory in Chesterfield, Derbyshire, before it went into production.

During the raid in September 2009 they discovered that the gang were also planning to expand into making counterfeit alcohol.

Hall, aged 51, formerly of Highland Way, was sentenced to 18 months in prison.

Burns, aged 34, of Leigh Avenue, was sentenced to 16 months in prison. A three year crime prevention order was also granted.

Hall, alongside another co-defendant, was to show other members of the gang how to operate the tobacco manufacturing machinery as well as supply the tobacco to unwitting buyers.

Christopher Burns

Philip Hall, of Rugeley

Evade

He was jailed for five years last March for his role in another illegal tobacco manufacturing plant in Blithbury, Staffordshire.

Burns arranged the transport of smuggled tobacco and would have played a role in selling the counterfeit goods across the UK.

Hall pleaded guilty to conspiracy to evade duty on the supply of cigarettes and tobacco.

Burns admitted evasion of duty on smuggled cigarettes and conspiracy to evade duty on the supply of cigarettes and tobacco.

In co-ordinated searches at the gang's other industrial units in Blidworth, and a barn at Top Farm, Laxton, Newark, both Nottinghamshire, investigators seized cigarette manufacturing equipment destined for another criminal gang.

This machinery was capable of producing 750 million cigarettes a year with an annual revenue loss of more than £141 million.

Investigators also seized a five ton tobacco cutting machine to process the tobacco to make counterfeit hand rolling tobacco and cigarettes from Laxton.

Gary Lampon, assistant director of criminal investigation for HMRC, said: "This was organised crime on an industrial scale.

The gang planned to launch a UK production facility, manufacturing counterfeit tobacco goods by the million.

Lining

"We had previously seized 1.25 million illegal cigarettes from them, so in the belief that they could make a bigger profit, they decided to make their own.

This was all about lining their own pockets and they had no regard to the potential harm such criminal activity causes to individuals, communities and legitimate businesses."

Judge Jonathon Teare, sitting at Nottingham Crown Court this week, said: "The potential loss of revenue was substantial; the project was grand with a series of plans set to evade duty and make millions."

Impressive GCSE results

STAFF at a Cannock school have praised their students after impressive GCSE results from their Year 8 students. A total of 95 per cent of Chase Academy students passed at least five GCSEs at grades A to C.

Some students performed so well they received a particular mention, including Toby Millington who achieved six A* grades, as well as six As, two Bs and a C. Katie Wilson scored four A* grades, two A marks, five Bs, a C and a D.

School secretary Karen Anderson said: "In addition, many students achieved some excellent early GCSE grades.

"Eighty-nine per cent of our year 10 students have already achieved their maths and English GCSEs. Other notable achievements are Edgar Lee who achieved A grade A-level maths in year 10, three years early."

Weight loss plan points to success on a plate

Marie Bennett before and after losing nine stone

Naomi Brevitt how she was and how she looks now

TWO Chase women are hailing the success of a Weightwatchers programme after shedding 16 stone between them.

Marie Bennett, a payroll administrator from Hednesford, has lost nine stone since March 2010, while psychiatric nurse Naomi Brevitt is seven stone lighter since joining the Cannock programme at the beginning of last year.

Marie, who joined Weightwatchers Hednesford weighing 19st 11lbs, has now dropped from a size 28 dress size to a 12-14, thanks to the programme's ProPoints plan, which enables participants to eat what they like, when they like until their daily total has been reached. ProPoints are calculated by looking at the four key nutrients of protein, carbohydrates, fat and fibre.

Each member is given a daily allowance based on their age, height, weight and gender and a weekly allowance.

Invaluable

Marie said: "I eat out a couple of times a week and have found the weekly allowance fantastic for this. It's changed my life for the better and I have found the support of the meetings invaluable."

Since joining Weightwatchers at 18st 6lbs Naomi has dropped from a dress size 22 to 14. "Weightwatchers has changed my life and how I think about food,"she said.

Programme leader Sarah Tipper said: "I am very passionate about this and I am so proud of them and what they have achieved. They are an inspiration to the other members."

The meetings are held on Mondays at The Salvation Army in Hednesford, from 5.30 to 6.30 and 7-8pm, Wednesdays are held at the Avon Business and Leisure Centre, in Avon Road, Cannock, from 5.30 to 6.30 and 7-8pm.

To join, contact stipper@weightwatchers.co.uk or just turn up. Registration is free until April 7.

Get on board plea for bus design competition

PASSENGERS are being encouraged to redesign a bus as part of an Arriva competition.

Arriva Midlands is appealing for budding designers and art buffs to think of a bus as a blank canvas, and consider how it can be transformed into a work of art. The winning design will then be brought to life on a real Arriva bus.

Keith Myatt, communications and media relations manager for Arriva Midlands said: "We want people to come up with some really creative ideas for our Art Bus. The design could reflect your local area, or be completely abstract. For more details or to enter, visit www.arriva bus.co.uk/artbus/

Goodman to help Liam's fund reach a landmark

FORMER Wolves, Albion and Walsall football player Don Goodman will be the star attraction when a charitable group attempts to reach a big milestone next month.

Liam Keeling

For the past three years Andy and Georgina Keeling, from Cheslyn Hay, have been raising money for the Liam Keeling Memorial Fund, set up in memory of their son.

Liam, a Cardinal Griffin School pupil, died in October 2009 after contracting Meningitis B and so far Andy and Georgina's tireless work has since seen them raise £95,000 for Meningitis UK.

Liam was a keen footballer and played for Wyrley Juniors FC.

The next fundraising event takes place at the Banks's Stadium, where Liam was a Walsall FC season ticket holder, on Thursday February 16.

Milestone

Guest speaker Goodman will be joined by comedian Ian "Sludge" Lees for the fundraising night where it is hoped the milestone of £100,000 will be broken.

Tickets for the evening, which also includes a three-course meal and raffle, cost £32 a seat or £300 for a table of 10.

To book tickets call Richard Holmes on 07825 747731.

Grants are handed out to groups

A JUNIOR football club, an advice centre and a hospice were among the voluntary groups given grants by Hednesford Town Council.

The authority was keen to support groups that assisted vulnerable people in the community such as the elderly, the young and those suffering with illness or disability.

Council chairman Councillor Alan Pearson said: "As town councillors we recognise the valuable work being carried out by the voluntary and charitable sectors in Hednesford."

Organisations receiving total grants of nearly £2,000 included the Cannock Chase Advice Centre, Hednesford Royal British Legion, St Giles Hospice, Victim Support, Greenheath FC and Hednesford Town u- 9s.

Councillor Pearson added: "The town council will maintain the same level of support in the next financial year."

County's extra slice of cashpot

STAFFORDSHIRE'S share of a cashpot to help prevent people from having to sell their homes to pay for care in old age has been boosted to more than £4 million.

The extra £465,000 will go towards a bigger pot with the long-term aim of helping residents to downsize to rented accommodation but without requiring them to sell their homes.

Broken down into areas, Cannock Chase will receive £365,775 and South Staffordshire £377,847.

Lottery just the ticket for helping wildlife

NATURE lovers can support a local wildlife charity and be in with a chance of winning up to £75 a week by signing up to a weekly lottery scheme.

The lottery, in aid of Staffordshire Wildlife Trust, offers jackpot prizes of £75, £25 and £10 in return for paying £1 a week to the scheme by direct debit. All proceeds from the weekly scheme will go towards the trust's work caring for 25 nature reserves across the county, undertaking conservation projects to protect threatened wild species and habitats and working with communities to promote understanding and enjoyment of the natural world.

Anyone who wants to take part can sign up at the trust's Wolseley Centre base, in Wolseley Bridge, between Stafford and Rugeley.

Selfless student wins a top award

HE is always happy to lend a helping hand at school but now Cheslyn Hay Sport & Community High School sixth-former Russell Bagnall has been recognised for the work he does outside the classroom. The 18-year-old has been presented with the Diana Memorial Award.

It was awarded for the work he does as secondary carer to his parents.

Teachers, who sent in a nomination without his knowledge, say that not even his friends were aware of the home responsibilities he fits in around his studies.

The A- level student, from Essington, helps to care for his father who has been in a wheelchair since suffering a stroke when Russell was four and his mother who is deaf and mute.

His head of year Lucy Horobin said: "Even those quite close to him were unaware of his personal circumstances.

Tears

"When we were told he had won, we went to his tutor room and presented him with the award in front of his tutor group. Some of his friends were in tears, they had no idea."

She added: "Despite his duties at home, he is an outstanding student and is always there to offer assistance when it is needed."

Russell, who is studying double art and psychology, will be officially presented with his award at a ceremony in London in March.

The Diana Memorial Award for inspirational young people was established in 1999. Russell receives a certificate signed by the Prime Minister and a special lapel pin.

Newlife has bank support

A CANNOCK organisation has been named by HSBC as its charity of the year.

HSBC Midlands Region has chosen to support the Newlife Foundation throughout 2012 with around 200 branches set to raise money through a series of events.

All proceeds will be used to fund specialist equipment for disabled and terminally ill children across the Midlands with HSBC branches supporting the cause including those in Derby, Nottingham, Leicester, Northamptonshire, Milton Keynes, Coventry, Birmingham, Walsall, Gloucestershire, Wolverhampton, Dudley and Telford.

Children

Roy Lewis, regional services manager for HSBC, said: "What really appeals about working with Newlife is that we can literally change children's lives and the charity is able to identify particular children in need in the area.

"We have supported other charities but we've never really been able to pinpoint exactly where the money goes."

Nora Smith, fundraising manager for Newlife, said: "If any individual or organisation wants to help, they can contact the fundraising team on freephone 0800 9884640."

Art on display

ARTIST Richard Boote is to host an exhibition at the Chasewater Innovation Centre. 'Spirit and Science' will show from March 6 to April 1. There will be a 'Meet the Artist' day on March 10.

Birthday treat curries favour with child star

Ben Wilby with his parents Nigel and Jill, grandmother Maureen Smith and Tony Uddin, owner of The Dilshad

AN award winning Indian restaurant dished up a treat for a child movie star to celebrate his 10th birthday.

Ben Wilby and his family enjoyed a meal at The Dilshad in Chadsmoor.

Ben, of Bishops Close, Cannock, tied his birthday celebrations in with finishing filming for Nativity 2: The Second Coming where he is starring alongside Former Doctor Who star David Tennant. It will be released in November. Ben was 10 last Sunday (January 29) and on his birthday competed in the Wrekin Dance Festival where he came first in his tap category. He also came third in a classical ballet duet with partner Sophie Moseley.

Ben enjoyed his special night with parents Jill and Nigel and grandparents Mick and Maureen Smith.

Dilshad owner Tony Uddin said: "Ben is a real star and it was a pleasure to welcome him and his family."

Ben's mother Jill added: "Ben had an absolutely lovely time. All round it was a fantastic birthday."

Ben has won a string of dance competitions and has also starred in countless adverts and is a regular on ITV's This Morning.

The Dilshad has won a clutch of awards since opening in 1979 and is home to the UK's hottest curry – The Dilshad Inferno.

Band raises charity cash

AN acoustic duo raised £500 for charity with a concert at a village pub.

A collection was held during the Autumn Jackals gig at the Railway Tavern, Norton Canes, in aid of SADS (Sudden Adult Death Syndrome).

The band is made up of Jake Baker from Norton Canes and Callum Sohal of Cheslyn Hay. They decided to help the charity after Jake's uncle dies from the condition aged just 37.

For more details on the band visit www.autumnjackals.co.uk or email theautumnjackals@gmail.com

Plea as dog needs sight op

AN URGENT appeal has been made for donations so that a 14-month old dog can have a sight-saving eye operation.

Thunder, a husky, was rescued from bad living conditions by his owner Robert Hyden who then helped the dog get back to a healthy weight.

Over time Mr Hyden noticed that Thunder had something wrong with his eyes and after an examination by a vet was told that the husky has cataracts, with one eye 85 per cent blind and the other 40 per cent.

If Thunder doesn't have an operation within the next six months the condition will become permanent and he will be blind. The operation could cost in the region of £4,500.

Ruth Dewis, who along with friend Pauline Roberts helps re-home and care for dogs across Cannock Chase, is supporting Mr Hyden's campaign to find the money needed.

Ruth said: "If people could help in any way then all help would be gratefully received.

"It's a shame that after having a bad start Thunder was given a second chance at having a good life and this is now under threat."

My Hyden works part time at Hawkesyard Priory in Armitage and has sold his car to help fund the operation.

Anyone who can help should call Ruth on 07900 090993 or on Pauline 07971 817877.

Supermarket gives lesson in Fairtrade

PRIMARY school pupils in Cannock have been learning the value of Fairtrade. Sainsbury's staff Heather Norman and Sue Butler visited St Joseph's Catholic Primary, Hednesford, to teach children about the initiative, which guarantees a better deal for producers in third world countries.

Heather said: "We gave the kids displays and samples of products, like bananas and pineapples. We also gave the kids a map to show where the products come from."

She also dropped in on St Thomas More Primary, Great Wyrley, Five Ways Primary, Heath Hayes, and a group at St Johns Church, Hednesford.

Age prevails in quiz battle

Pupils from Bridgtown Primary School at Vine Court Care Home, Bridgtown. At the front is Marcus Smith, aged 10, with Betty Perkins, one of the residents

IT WAS a challenge that elderly residents in Bridgtown could not resist. Pupils from the village primary school took on residents at nearby Vine Court care home in a general knowledge quiz to find out which of them was the brainiest.

The meeting of minds was prompted by the TV programme 'Are You Smarter Than a 10-year-old?' And age won out over youth as the residents beat the youngsters by just two points.

The contestants answered questions on history, geography, science, maths and literature. School spokesman Amanda Beard said: "The children are learning about the Second World War at the moment so that topic was included. We also threw in a bit of French.

"The children had a fantastic time," she added. "The staff laid on refreshments for them and gave us a tour of the building.

"To make their day, the winner on the residents' team generously donated his prize money to the children."

Policing changes are now in force

HUGE changes to policing in Staffordshire have this week come into force. The new approach went 'live' on Monday in Cannock, Lichfield, Stafford and South Staffordshire.

By Mark Mudie

It will see more crimes be handled over the phone, officers considering "alternatives to arrest" and a new specialist investigation unit starting work.

The new approach had been piloted in Stoke-on-Trent, Newcastle and the Moorlands.

Dep Ch Con Douglas Paxton hailed the success of the reforms in the north of the county as he announced the launch of the changes in the south.

He said the pilot project had been "extremely encouraging".

Officers have been withdrawn from the streets to man phones and offer advice to or arrange appointments with residents. Community penalties may be imposed instead of arrests as part of a raft of cost-cutting measures.

Other options include street bail – where a suspect is arrested and bailed to appear later at a police station – or penalty notices.

A new 18-strong specialist investigation unit will be tasked with gathering evidence within minutes of an arrest.

MP welcomes clampdown

TOUGHER measures to combat metal theft have been welcomed by Cannock Chase MP Aidan Burley after new figures showed that levels of metal theft from churches in Cannock Chase and Lichfield were some of the highest in the country. "This is a despicable and cowardly crime that strikes at the very heart of our communities and I'm pleased that the Government has taken tough action," he said.

Home Secretary Theresa May told MPs that cash payments for scrap metal would be banned and penalties increased .

Run Forrest, run to aid children's hospice

Kevin Harvey and Carmel Forrest are in training for the 2012 London Marathon to raise funds for Acorns

A PENKRIDGE woman is among the keen runners taking part in the London marathon in aid of Acorns Children's Hospice.

Deputy head nurse Carmel Forrest will be joined by physiotherapist Kevin Harvey and night nurse Judi Clayton for the challenge on Sunday, April 22.

Carmel said: "I'm training on Cannock Chase, and had a minor injury, but wanted to keep going because I know how badly Acorns needs our support. My local Indian restaurant and gym are supporting us, and I am doing a bag pack at my local shops. I'm hoping people will sponsor us." Acorns cares for more than 600 children who have life-limiting or life-threatening conditions and 800 families, including those that are bereaved.

To sponsor Carmel and Kevin, see the www.justgiving.com/carmel-forrest website.

Diver's items fetch £9,000

ITEMS amassed by a Cannock diver who died more than two years ago fetched more than £9,000 at auction.

Watches and shipwreck memorabilia went under the hammer in Birmingham. They offered a fascinating insight into the world of Carl Spencer, who was born in Bloxwich but lived in Cannock.

Mr Spencer, who was well known within the diving world, died in 2009 aged 39 in a diving accident.

The father-of-two died while exploring the Titanic's sister ship in the Aegean Sea near Greece. The auction had prompted a lot of interest within the diving community, with some lots attracting beyond their predicted amount.

Stephen Whittaker, director and auctioneer at Fellows in Birmingham, said: "There was a huge interest in these items, with comments being made on diving blogs across the world prior to the auction.

Watches

"The watches in particular sold very well, exceeding their top estimates, reflecting the demand for specialist watches in our auctions. The memorabilia again attracted a lot of interest, and in particular a plate from RMS Carpathia sold well at £600."

Mr Spencer's stainless steel automatic Rolex Sea Dweller bracelet watch was one of the top sellers, fetching £4,100. It had been valued at £1,000 to £1,500.

The Minton plate recovered from the wreckage of RMS Carpathia, which Mr Spencer explored, sold for £600.

In total, the seven lots going under the hammer raised £9,094.

Mr Spencer, a former pupil at Great Wyrley High School, was a heating and air conditioning plumber by day

MRS BROWN'S BOYS

BBC1, 9.30pm

In mid-January, Mrs Brown's Boys was tenth highest rated BBC One show of the week, with more than six million viewers tuning in – that doesn't include all the extra viewers who caught it on iPlayer. Does it deserve such high viewing figures? Well, that's open to question, but if the sight of latterday Old Mother Riley Brendan O'Carroll in drag tickles your funnybone, then you won't want to miss this final helping in which Agnes tries to make friends with Dermot's mother-in-law Hillary ahead of the baby's birth. She suggests they go out to dinner together, but the evening comes to an abrupt end for the two feuding matriarchs.

THE HOTEL

Channel 4, 8pm

Admittedly, it can't be easy running a hotel; having the ability to keep everybody happy all the time and doing it through those stubbornly gritted teeth with a pseudo-friendly grin plastered across your face. But if Basil Fawlty can do it, Mark Jenkins is going to make damn sure he can. The Grosvenor's manager has had somewhat of a brainwave this week, as he decides to open the hotel's nightclub. Where his germ of an idea falls down, though, is when Christian gets giddy about his 'perfect solution' of the club's theme being 'omni-sexual' — even offering to go out in full-drag get-up complete with semi-naked men by way of promoting his idea.

CLUB NEWS

Fortnight in Italy for just £48

ALDRIDGE TWG

OUR sales table and the craft table selling hand made cards raised a grand total of £261 which was donated to guild funds.

We had a talk from John Austin on Camping in Italy with the Scouts in 1966.

This proved to be most amusing, with John telling us about his adventure starting from Pleck Methodist Church, being waved off by the Mayor of Walsall, churchgoers and parents.

The cost of the trip for each scout was £48, and prior to the two-week trip most of the scouts took weekly Italian lessons.

Toilet

They hired a minibus which took them 3,000 miles, had wooden slatted seats each side with scouts sitting knee to knee, and a portable toilet made from an oildrum stored on the roof along with the tents.

Several mishaps happened on the way to Bologna including broken sunglasses, a new Gaz tilley lamp, a wing mirror and an accelerator cable.

The journey took them via France and Germany during World Cup matches. The scouts all wore a Union Jack badge on their shirts and had their photograph taken with the local Mayor.

After so much travelling and setbacks they had little time to stay in Italy, but they all had a wonderful time and enjoyed their adventure

The scouts went again in 1967 and 1968.

Club hands £400 to hospice team

Harold Foster, right, presents cheques for £400 to Simon Cater and Sally Woods, fundraisers for Compton Hospice, after his year as Probus president

PROBUS CLUB WEDNESFIELD

PROBUS Club of Wednesfield was pleased to welcome Mr Simon Cater and Ms Sally Woods from Compton Hospice, Wolverhampton.

The president's charity for 2011 raised a total of £400, and the immediate past president, Harold Foster, and Probus members had great pleasure in presenting the cheques to Simon and Sally at the club's January meeting.

Best wishes were expressed for their future fundraising and for the hospice.

Simon and Sally spoke of the work at Compton Hospice, and the help they can give patients, carers and relatives.

A further presentation was made to Arthur Windsor to show the Probus club's appreciation for more than 22 years in office as treasurer.

Pass the parcel for cheats

CHESLYN HAY TWG

DOROTHY Shenton, as acting chairman, welcomed everyone to the January meeting and wished everyone a Happy New Year. The Guild now has 65 members.

Everyone agreed that the Christmas party was a big success, the food was spectacular, the company was good, and, as the stereo system refused to work properly during pass the parcel, it gave people the opportunity to cheat. On a very wet first Thursday morning in January, nine brave ladies turned up for the first coffee morning of the year. It is hoped more will join them in February.

Members were reminded that their annual subscription of £20 was due in February. The Guild broke from the January tradition of holding a silent auction to raise funds. Instead, Joyce suggested a normal auction, a popular idea, so Joyce was appointed as the auctioneer.

Along with two helpers to pass the 'lots' to the buyers, she did an excellent job and more than £80 was raised.

Ideas for the jubilee celebration were invited and will be considered next month.

Facial Fillers & Wrinkle Relaxing treatments

Since the late 1980's, Facial Fillers and Wrinkle Relaxing Injections have been part of a major revolution in non-surgical cosmetic treatments becoming one of the most popular treatments available in the fight against the signs of ageing today. The results of treatment are a natural, relaxed and more youthful appearance which will last for several months.

Wrinkle relaxing treatments are commonly used to treat areas in the upper part of the face such as frown lines between the eyes, forehead lines and lines around the eyes (Crow's feet).

Lichfield Family Dental can now off you the opportunity to have Facial Fillers from £295 and Winkle Relaxing treatment from £250 Please call us to find out more information.

Valentine's Day treat for homebuyers

WITH Valentine's Day just around the corner, national housebuilder Miller Homes is giving Cannock homebuyers even more reasons to fall in love with Littleton Green.

Anyone who reserves a new home at the development before Tuesday February 14 will be in with a chance of winning a romantic night in for two.

Situated in the village of Huntington, Littleton Green comprises a range of three, four and five bedroom homes including a selection of Miller Homes' most exclusive five-bedroom detached properties.

As Valentine's Day approaches, those who make Littleton Green their perfect match and reserve a new home at the development from February 1-14 will be entered into a prize draw being run by Miller Homes across the West Midlands. One lucky winner chosen at random after February 14 will receive a luxury hamper containing Champagne, chocolates and Roses – the perfect ingredients for a romantic night in.

Ann Crick, Sales Director for Miller Homes' West Midlands region, said: "Many homeowners would agree that there is no better place to spend quality time with loved ones than in the comfort of your own home. Add a bottle of Champagne, chocolates, and flowers and romance will certainly be in the air!"

Townhouse

Set on the southern edge of Cannock Chase, with open fields and countryside stretching away to the west, Littleton Green is proving popular with families looking to put down roots. Prices at the development currently start from £179,950 for the three-bedroom Hardwicke townhouse.

Miller Homes' buyers who want to bring their loved ones and friends even closer can take advantage of the house-builder's Recommend a Friend incentive.

Those who recommend Littleton Green to friends and family who are considering moving will receive £1,000 if that person then goes on to buy a property at the development.

For more information on Littleton Green, please call 0800 840 8683 or visit the development which is open on Monday from 1pm to 5pm and Thursday to Sunday from 10am to 5pm.

CHRONICLE MOTORING

The new Swift Sport looks set to be a winner with its multi-spoked wheels

Swift and sure from Suzuki's style team

SUZUKI'S swiftest Swift proved a big hit with youngish owners looking for an affordable (to buy and insure) warm hatch.

So little wonder the new Sport model, on sale in January, is more a step forward than a leap into the automotive unknown, with more of what's good and a bit less of what isn't.

By Ian Donaldson

In the good column are power and economy, both boosted by a gentle reworking of the existing engine (now 134bhp from its 1.6-litre petrol engine) and the addition of a sixth gear to make long motorway drags a bit less of a . . . drag.

There's also been a bit more space added to the length of the new Swift Sport for a slightly roomier interior (still only a four-seater, though) and the addition of cruise control and keyless entry – leave the key in your pocket and the car still knows you're about.

Like the old car, metallic paint is standard at no extra cost (tell that to Audi!).

So to the not so good; this welcome tinkering with an already successful formula has brought a price increase that's rather more than a gentle uplift.

The old Sport cost £12,995 so the predicted £14,500 of the new model looks as though the Suzuki price setters knew they had an in-demand model and priced it accordingly.

Bolder

It's still not overpriced, though, when you consider the reworking you'll find in the little hatchback, designed in Japan, tested on some awkward Yorkshire roads as part of its European acclimatisation and built in Hungary in a plant that's this summer built its two-millionth vehicle.

The last Sport model was hard to pick out from its cheaper, slower siblings. The newcomer is less shy about boasting of its sporting prowess, with a bolder front grille, finned fog lamp housings, side body mouldings and a spoiler above rear window. Multi-spoked alloy wheels fill the wheel arches in muscular fashion. Inside, the changes from non-Sport versions is subtle, with more firmly bolstered front seats about the only obvious change. Not that there's much wrong with the cabin anyway, with room in the rear for two adults and a dashboard that's simple (a good thing) and easy to read.

In slightly pearly white paint the Swift Sport looks every centimetre the sporty hatch it's intended to be, with blacked out rear-side windows adding a touch of Mafia menace. It looks perfectly pitched at the early-30s and mostly male buyers who Suzuki thinks will fall for the car.

They'll appreciate the car Suzuki's engineers have taken over, making it feel sporty on the road, with a lot of work to make the suspension and steering feel sharper without turning the car into a racetrack refugee.

Like other sporty numbers from Japan the Swift Sport's engine needs to be worked hard for maximum attack.

Change gear at what sounds the right time and you'll miss its verve.

Driven with some restraint it will even prove an economical little tiger, with the official fuel average consumption figure better by 10 per cent, at 44.1mpg.

Company car user choosers might also note the newcomer's emissions now slip below the critical 160g/km level. Family car buyers will like the five-star rating all Swifts enjoy in the Euro NCAP tests.

It may be small but there's a proper bigger car feel to the whole machine.

Stylish – the Suzuki Swift Sport 2012

Suzuki's Swift – sporty on the road with sharper steering and suspension

The Fiat 500, popular with private owners and a star in the business city car awards once again

Fourth business win for Fiat's super 500 model

THE Fiat 500 continues to show its superiority among the business community, after scooping the City Car honours in the 2012 Business-Car Awards, for the fourth consecutive year.

The award was voted for by the readers of BusinessCar magazine. The vote was for the entire 500 range rather than a specific model.

"Fiat's 500 has again proved to be a business car market favourite, and Fiat's advancement with its TwinAir technology has enhanced the excellent city car's appeal to the sector," said Paul Barker, editor, BusinessCar.

The 500 has a long list of honours to its name, including Car of the Year in 2008, along with several from the UK's leading consumer and trade titles.

"Four entries and four straight wins is wonderful news and a tribute to the Fiat 500," said Elena Bernardelli, marketing director, Fiat Group Automobiles UK and Ireland.

Available with a choice of ultra-low emissions Euro 5 engines: 85bhp 0.9-litre TwinAir, 69 bhp 1.2-litre and 100bhp 1.4-litre petrol, and 95 bhp 1.3-litre MultiJet turbodiesel, the Fiat 500 is available in a variety of trim levels. With a starting price of £9,960, the 500 represents outstanding value for money.

THE TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING (LOCAL DEVELOPMENT) (ENGLAND) REGULATIONS 2004 (AS AMENDED)

NOTICE OF SUBMISSION – STAFFORDSHIRE AND STOKE-ON-TRENT JOINT WASTE CORE STRATEGY 2010 - 2026 DEVELOPMENT PLAN DOCUMENT

NOTICE IN GIVEN in accordance with the above Regulations that Staffordshire County Council and Stoke-on-Trent City Council on the 20 January 2012 submitted the Staffordshire and Stoke-on-Trent Joint Waste Core Strategy to the Secretary of State for Communities and Local Government for independent examination. This is a strategy for how to manage all the waste produced in Staffordshire and Stoke-on-Trent for the period up to 2026, setting out where, when and how new waste management facilities will be developed and assessed. When adopted, this strategy will replace the existing Waste Local Plan in guiding the determination of waste planning applications.

The following documents have been submitted and are available for inspection:

- Staffordshire and Stoke-on-Trent Joint Waste Core Strategy 2010-2026 (Publication Document September 2011);
- Representations on the Publication Document;
- Schedule of Minor Amendments (January 2012);
- Sustainability Appraisal Final Report on Publication Joint Waste Core Strategy (September 2011)

Members of the public may inspect a 'Document library' containing the submission documents and an evidence base of supporting documents relevant to the preparation of the Joint Waste Core Strategy, during normal opening hours at: Staffordshire County Council, No.1 Staffordshire Place, Stafford, ST16 2LP; and; Stoke-on-Trent City Council, Civic Centre, Glebe St, Stoke-on-Trent, ST4 1RF.

The 'Document Library' is also available to view online at the County Councils website www.staffordshire.gov.uk/wcs. Internet access can be gained from all public libraries in Staffordshire and Stoke-on-Trent or at the City and County Council main receptions. This information is also available on CD on request.

Inspector Melvyn Middleton BAECON DIPTP DIPMGT MRTPI has been appointed to conduct the examination to determine whether the Joint Waste Core Strategy Development Plan Document is sound and legally compliant. The Inspector will set a timetable for the examination and details will be made available on the County Council's website www.staffordshire.gov.uk/wcs-examination once they are known.

Cannock fail to storm Bishops Castle

Bishops Castle 13 Cannock 0

CANNOCK'S eight-game winning streak came to an end with a Midlands Four West (North) defeat against a well-drilled Castle side.

Cannock, virtually at full strength, were looking to close the gap on the teams ahead of them.

But Bishops started the stronger. Phase ball and good tactical kicking from their No.10 pinned Cannock in their own half for sustained periods.

Strong tackles from Phil Pedley initially kept the scoreboard level but normally good lineouts were misfiring and although the scrums were as solid as ever Cannock seemed to struggle to keep the ball long enough to cause any damage.

The first points come from the boot of the home fly-half after an offence at the breakdown.

The narrow pitch prevented the dangerous duo of Jukes and Freeman peeling off wide from the scrum and basically stopped Cannock's normal dangerous style of play.

Punished

The visitors also felt unfairly punished at the breakdown, believing the home side to be killing ball in the ruck.

A dull first half brought just the three home points but the second began in a more lively fashion.

Ryan Palij was brought on to try inject some energy into a surprisingly lacklustre pack and Cannock began to produce some strong carries.

However, they were unable to break a solid defence and Bishops added another penalty.

The home side's game plan was boring but effective and this just wasn't to be Cannock's day.

The last action of any interest was a try for the home side. A well-executed rolling maul saw them drive 15 metres to the line and put the ball down for a converted try and 13-0.

So, a bad day at the office for Cannock who will be looking to get back to winning ways at home to rivals Bloxwich on Saturday.

■ Senior training with level three coach Paul Buckley is on Wednesday nights from 7pm. Players of all ability levels are welcome at the club.

Rugeley's pack gets a shove on against St Leonards

Rugeley win tough game

RUGELEY took victory in a physical and hard-fought game of rugby.

St Leonard's made a determined start but were unable to break through the Rugeley defence.

In the first 10 minutes Rugeley winger Steven Salter scored his debut try for the home team, swiftly followed by centre Scott Read going under the posts to make it 12-0 to the home side.

The game then became fractious and vocal and with six minutes of the first period remaining Rugeley hooker Tom Wilson and the Stafford side's No.12 went head to head in an encounter which gave the referee no alternative but to sin bin both of them.

Rugeley 29 St Leonard's 3

The start of the second period was a little more disciplined.

From the onset Rugeley dominated the second period with a great run by Jordon Wood resulting in a try once again right by the visitors' posts. The conversion took the score to 19-0.

Throughout the second period Rugeley's pack were unstoppable and at each scrum were able to manipulate the visitors at each encounter.

Rugeley's players were in synch with each other, training ground moves flowing throughout.

Robbie Castle excelled in the lineouts while Martin De Riddershowed hard running. Two more tries brought the score to 29-0 to the home team.

St Leonard's were able to come back with a consolation penalty.

■ Rugeley Rugby Club held a race night last Friday in aid of the clubhouse redevelopment which raised £1,300.

The club thanked all the local companies and people who sponsored the evening. It is always looking for sponsors – contact John Parkes at rugeleyrugbyclub@gmail.com.

Lichfield exact revenge for early defeat

Lichfield 58 Camp Hill 10

LICHFIELD gained revenge for their defeat at the hands of the Myrtle Greens earlier in the season.

Lichfield started the game with such an intensity and tempo that after six minutes they led 10-0 following an excellent finish from both Brad Rowland and George Cotterhill, playing at centre this week.

As Camp Hill seemed to adjust to the tempo they began to exert some pressure on Lichfield.

The Camp Hill centre, Ian Briggs slotted a penalty and then their No.8 Rob Hill scored a try after some inaccurate handling and sloppy defending from Lichfield, converted by Briggs.

At 10-10 Lichfield began to play with an accuracy which allowed them to generate phase after phase and Luke Massey, showing great composure, ghosted through a gap and sprinted three-quarters the length of the pitch to score under the posts, converted by brother Greg.

Exhausted

Then Greg Massey pounced on a poor kick and ran the length of the pitch to score a fine individual try, which he also converted.

Ten minutes into the second half Derrick Squire fended off three opponents to score in the corner before Greg Massey got another score, improved by Paul Maxwell-Keys to take Lichfield well clear of their rivals at 41-10.

Camp Hill looked exhausted and it was only some inaccurate passing and poor decision-making which kept the score down.

Following the kick-off, Lichfield gathered and went through four phases before setting up hooker Steve Gabbitass to run in a try in to the delight of his teammates and the Lichfield supporters. Maxwell-Keys converted from the touchline.

In the final eight minutes Lichfield scored a further two tries, which encapsulated both the attitude and potential of a young squad.

A-level students Brad Rowland and Maxwell-Keys rounded off a superb team display, taking the score to 58-10.

Lichfield travel to Whitchurch this Saturday in what will be yet another tough encounter.

Burntwood fall to the mighty Oak of Moseley

BURNTWOOD slipped further behind the pack after this disappointing result at home to Moseley Oak in SSE Midlands Two West North.

They had beaten the Birmingham side with a late try back in October but there was no doubt which was the better side here as the visitors moved into the top half of the table.

For much of the first half it looked as though the hosts would get something from the game but a converted try on the half-time whistle took Moseley up to 13-0 and they went on to dominate the second period with four more tries.

Burntwood 5 Moseley Oak 39

Things began ominously for Burntwood when no-one reacted to the kick off which gave the visitors good field position. They went in front with a well-struck penalty goal after eight minutes.

Burntwood responded by taking a Moseley put-in at a scrum and then winning a series of penalties to take play into the visitors' half but it led nowhere.

This sterile period of play, was broken in the last 10 minutes of the half.

Pick and drives by the Moseley packled to Burntwood being penalised for early engagement at the scrum.

Craig Seedhouse did well to stop a run by the Moseley inside centre but from Burntwood infringed again at the scrum and the penalty was converted for 6-0.

The hosts hit back with a burst by Matt Wood to take play over halfway. Ben Holt kicked a penalty to the corner but the backs then fumbled possession.

This proved even more costly when Moseley scored with the last play of the half.

Their forwards set the ball up and a pass back inside sent their quick centre on the run. He was half tackled by Seedhouse but he managed to his feet and over the line for a converted try.

The same centre featured in the visitors' next try five minutes into the second period. He burst through a gap to set up a two-on-one and unselfishly fed his full back for the try.

Moseley went further ahead seven minutes later after an Ian Jones clearance was kept in play and the visitors scored a converted try in the corner.

They scored another converted try when one of their wingers ran three quarters of the length of the pitch.

With the game entering stoppage time, a sustained Burntwood attack ended with winger Luke Briggs scoring in the corner.

Even then Moseley had the last word. As Burntwood tried to add to their score, a pass was intercepted for a converted try.

Burntwood skipper Graham Shelley on the charge against Moseley Oak

Bad blood in grim defeat

Burntwood 3 Walsall 5

THERE was no joy for Burntwood seconds as they lost at home in a joyless contest.

It was a game of frequent skirmishes between the sides, one of which ended with front rower Andy Dodd receiving a nasty facial injury.

Walsall took the lead with a first-half try but Burntwood could only respond with a second-half penalty by Brett Taylor.

Aldridge 12 Burntwood 31

The thirds' game was halted when Nigel Smith took a knock to the head and was taken to hospital. He was later discharged.

Burntwood had taken the lead from the first passage of play which resulted in John Pucci scoring out wide, then Rob England ran in under the posts from 40 metres.

Ill discipline by Burntwood forwards then allowed Aldridge to take a short tap penalty and crash over.

Lewis Aston crossed for a try, but Burntwood again allowed the big pack of Aldridge to force their way over from a penalty.

Just before the interval, England went under the posts for his second and early in the second half Aston grabbed his second before the abandonment of the fixture.

Burntwood Under-16s led 8-5 at half-time away to Nuneaton, but lost 10-8 while the Under-15s were beaten 34-7 at home by Nuneaton.

Stacey on the mark, but fourths lose

Cannock 1 Edgbaston 3

CANNOCK fourths had to blow away some festive cobwebs before getting up to speed.

But although they battled hard, this ENER-G Midlands Central Premier Division game finished in defeat.

A confident and competent Edgbaston side closed Cannock down in defence and broke in numbers when in possession. Cannock did make some inroads into the Edgbaston D, but failed to convert pressure into goals.

By half-time Cannock were two goals down. They pushed on in the second half and their efforts paid off with Gary Stacey's shot from a corner saved by the keeper only for Callum Stacey to put away the rebound.

With the deficit halved, Cannock felt they could push on to take something from the game. However, with 10 minutes to go Edgbaston broke once more and slotted in their third.

Cannock Badgers A 1 Lichfield 2

What a difference a week makes. Having suffered a heavy defeat at the hands of Cannock Badgers B last week, Lichfield fielded a stronger XI against the A side.

Cannock Hockey Club

The Lichfield trademark of three adults was also in evidence, as was the emphasis on the long ball they played out from the back.

Cannock found themselves under pressure and any forward progress they made was repeatedly snuffed out by the Lichfield adults across the back .

Cannock did create a couple of openings but Lichfield took the lead when a route one ball out of defence was missed by the Cannock defence and the opposing centre-forward drove the ball past James Bandurak in goal. A defensive error led to a second for Lichfield.

Cannock improved in the second half, and with about 10 minutes left, good approach play gave Ollie Edwards an opportunity inside the D and he finished well.

Cannock Badgers B 1 Stone 1

Cannock Badgers B earned a well-deserved draw against a strong Stone Badgers side in a close encounter at a frosty Chase Park.

Stone started strongly with a number of their older players driving through the young Cannock side. It took a diving save to the right from Cannock keeper Bradon Massey to keep the scoreline goalless.

Cannock weathered the early storm and started passing the ball with a growing confidence.

The midfield of Tom Page, Lewis Michael and Joe Norwood combined well and the home side went ahead when Liam Humpage's shot was saved and Dominic Hoard slotted in the rebound.

Stone responded and while Massey again performed well, Stone claimed a late equaliser.

Athletic stay top despite injuries

Burntwood Dragons U10 1
Walmley Tigers 0

A FINE free-kick by Leon Davies-Morton proved to be the only goal of the game.

Hawkins Sports 2
Chase Athletic U13 2

Depleted Chase began with no subs, had one player carrying an injury and had three more hurt during the game. But they held out through a second-half onslaught to remain top of the division and keep their unbeaten run intact. Bradley Pearse scored his first goal for the club and Zak Kosewski was also on target as Chase led twice.

Chase Athletic U14 2
Stafford Rangers 0

Three vital league points for Chase came courtesy of goals from skipper Josh Wilding and a first for the club from Spencer Hands, while the hosts could even afford the luxury of a missed penalty.

Chasetown Scholars U12 1
Burntwood Dragon Reds 0

A good performance from the Scholars saw them progress into the Lichfield League Shield quarter-finals. Chasetown created numerous chances with the goal coming from a fine move, culminating in a cross headed home by Zak Brown.

Hednesford United U14 Girls 6
Brownhills Colts 0

It was back to winning ways for Hednesford with a hat-trick for Katie Cox and goals for Ellie Bilson, Charli Philpott and Eve Hilditch.

Clough double lifts Diamonds

DIAMONDS were made to work hard for the points by Shropshire side Allscott.

Karen Clough had already hit the woodwork twice when a sharp turn inside the box and great finish into the far corner with her left foot made it 1-0 in the second half.

Minutes later it was 2-0 with another good finish from Clough. Jo Sheerin, in goal, kept her defence on their toes for a clean sheet and Caitlin Harper did well on her debut.

Cannock come unstuck in all-out bid for goals

CANNOCK Under-16s' bid to become national indoor hockey champions was undone by two group defeats.

After beating Beeston and Belper to be crowned Midlands indoor champions in December, coach Alex Hill and his players were hoping they could go one better at the Aldersley Stadium, in Wolverhampton.

They opened their campaign on Saturday against Stockton. A cautious game saw the north-easter side go one up with just nine minutes left to play.

Yet in the final minutes Cannock won and converted two short corners to snatch a 2-1 victory.

Next up were Canterbury, with Cannock producing their best hockey of the tournament in the first half.

Doubles from captain Jeevan Dhanda and George Myatt saw Cannock sail into a 4-1 lead. But Canterbury quickly grabbed the momentum and pulled back to 4-3.

Even a Louie Morris goal brough only temporary calm as Cannock failed to retain possession and Canterbury levelled the scores at 5-5.

With minutes to Callum Swinnerton-Ions won a penalty flick for Cannock but Myatt could not convert, leaving the game tied.

On Sunday, Cannock faced their fellow joint group leaders, Team Bath, with the winners more or less assured of a place in the semi-finals.

Cannock had most of the early possession in an edgy game but were failing to create clear chances.

A poor clearance allowed a Bath player the chance to score past the excellent keeper, Ollie Balcombe.

National indoor hockey

A repeat of the error brought a second goal before half-time, and poor passes out of defence in the second half saw Team Bath grab two more goals for a 4-0 win.

Cannock now needed a five-goal victory over Old Loughtonians in their final group game to go through.

But when the necessary early goal did not arrive, Cannock's players began to rush and make unnecessary mistakes.

Old Laughts led 1-0 at the interval, meaning six goals were needed in 12 minutes for Cannock.

More rushed play meant more leaked goals and in a final throw of the dice Cannock took off the keeper for an extra outfielder.

The gamble failed and Cannock eventually lost 6-1, with Myatt scoring.

Cannock started Sunday joint top and finished joint bottom as Havant Under-16s won the tournament.

Cannock Ladies 3 Leek 0

CANNOCK ladies thirds team continued their great run of form.

They remain unbeaten in 2012 after a comfortable 3-0 victory over Leek.

Despite missing some players, Cannock continued to hit the level of quality that coach Alex Hill has been asking for all season.

It was captain Stacy Mound who led by example to give her side the advantage at half-time with a well-taken opener.

Cannock were in charge of proceedings throughout the first period, and in the second half showed more of the same.

Cannock remained in control and further goals from Ellie Bradbury and Lucy McCarthy finished off this fine victory.

Deakin's spot-kick clinches place in cup semi

FOUR-TIME Cannock Chase League Premier Cup winners and holders Belt Road are into the semi-finals after knocking out unbeaten league leaders The Dog 2-1.

They trailed 1-0 at half-time before Ashley Zagarella levelled and Chris Deakin made amends for his first-half penalty miss to make sure this time from the spot with 10 minutes to go.

Ten-time winners Brereton Town knocked out St Matthews 2-1 with a goal each for Pete Gladwin and Ross Perry.

Harrisons fought back from 2-1 down in the second round of the Division Two Cup to knock out Victoria 4-3 with two goals by Sam Taylor, one by Matty Brotherton and an own goal.

In league action, Broomhill Albion climbed to third after beating second placed Victoria Athletic 3-2. Dave Hudson scored twice and Ryan Tongue once.

A Gary Foulkes strike bagged all three points as Mary Rose beat Crystal Fountain 1-0. Cheslyn Hay recovered to beat Short Heath 2-1 as Nathan Benett and Lee Aston scored.

Lea Hall thrashed Royal Oak 10-0 in Division Three. Trafalgar beat Celtic Barnes 5-1 with a double from Wayne Marsh and a goal each for Matty Harper, Dave Rogalski and Corey Aires.

Second-placed Cheslyn Hay Athletic beat Louis Auto's 4-2. New Inns beat AFC Littleton 3-2. Carl Morris hit two with Sam Nicholls adding one.

Division Four's top two Winding Wheel and Cannock & Rugeley shared six goals. Rugeley Rangers beat White Hart 4-3 with Ashley Warrilow bagging two and Micky Daley and Adam Walsh one each.

Jolly Collier climbed out of the relegation zone by beating Castle 3-1. Jason Kirkham netted twice and Ricky Gittings once.

Tackeroo dropped into the relegation zone by losing 3-2 to promotion chasing Lime Lane. Adam Pearce and Paul Devitt put Lane two up before Ryan Ward and Tim Elsmore levelled the scores. Lime Lane sub Andy Heaton, aged 52, scored the winner with a minute to go. Lamb & Flag drew 1-1 with Cannock Social. TNT beat bottom team Green Rock 7-0.

Gould the star at both ends of pitch

Chasetown Reserves 2
Stratford Town Reserves 1

THE Scholars Reserves snatched a 2-1 home victory against Stratford Town.

Jonathan Gould netted the decisive goal in the 78th minute. Earlier on he had made a goal-line clearance when the visitors were on top.

In fact, the visitors enjoyed most possession and shots during the first half.

However, Stratford failed to penetrate Chasetown's defence and were mainly limited to long-range attempts by central midfielders Tom Brown and Matthew Wood.

Town's best chances fell within a minute of each other. First Tabious Williams turned well and fired in a belter which Mark Wiggins palmed away.

James Dykes' resulting corner found Greg Binns unmarked but his shot was cleared off the line by Gould.

The Scholars scored after 51 minutes when Theo Robinson was fouled in the area. Lee Wright made no mistake with the spot-kick.

Jamie Aiton rattled the bar with a bullet header but Town rallied and their equaliser came on 65 minutes from David Bailey after a fine touch and turn following a neat one-two.

Bailey also hit the upright but Chasetown got the winner when Gould was given time to pick his spot.

Chasetown out of cup

Chasetown Ladies 1
Reedswood 6

CHASETOWN went out of the County Cup to opponents with that little extra quality and experience.

With key players missing through injury and illness, the Scholars were behind just short of the halfway point of the first half, failing to deal with a through ball which left them exposed at the back and the visitors finished confidently.

Lady Luck wasn't wearing a Scholars shirt as an Amy Farmer clearance struck her own post and bounced beyond keeper Becky Troth straight back to a Reedswood striker.

Chasetown were 3-0 down at the break but poured forward in the second half, which left them exposed to the counter.

At 6-0 down they got a consolation from Jade Arber's curling free-kick.

Scholars' second string to take centre stage

CHASETOWN'S focus will be on their second string this weekend after the first-team were ruled out of action by the FA Trophy exploits of Northwich Victoria.

The Vics were due to be the visitors to the Scholars Ground on Saturday, but instead face a cup-tie against Hampton & Richmond at Macclesfield's Moss Rose.

It leaves Chris Brindley's men high and dry with no alternative opposition available, so the Scholars' reserves take centre stage with a cup clash of their own.

They host Burntwood in the semi-finals of the Staffordshire Senior Cup and could name a stonger-than-usual side. The first-team are back in action next week at Kendal, still looking for their first Evo-Stik Northern Premier League win of 2012.

Chasetown FC

Nantwich Town 0 Chasetown 0

A new-look Chasetown side put in a hard-working performance to pick up a point.

Both sides created several chances during an entertaining first half but goalkeepers Jon Brain and Ryan Price were on top form.

Chasetown had the first chance but Dave Bridgewater's free-kick was cleared by the Dabbers defence, while Dave MacPherson, Dennis Sherriff and skipper Chris Flynn went close for the hosts.

On 20 minutes the Scholars survived a scare when Sherriff intercepted a back pass from Richard Teesdale but Price was able to recover before the Dabbers forward could shoot. The home side produced some good runs down the left but Jimmy Turner and Chris Slater were equal to them.

Mark Hands enjoyed a couple of chances for the visitors but Brain was not to be beaten, while Chase debutants Scott Lycett and Danny Quinn pushed hard. The latter beat three defenders through the middle on 25 minutes but Brain was able to collect his shot at the second attempt. Prices pushed a Sherriff effort around the post and a couple of Bridgewater free-kicks came to nothing.

Seven minutes into the second period Nantwich were reduced to 10 men when Aleksandrs Solovjovs was sent off for a second yellow card. Sherriff hit the bar and MacPherson shot wide. Darren Stride had a good chance for the Scholars on 57 minutes from a Lycett cross but Brain punched clear.

Nantwich had the ball in the net on 73 minutes but it was rule offside.

The same happened tor Chasetown five minutes later when Stride was ruled offside as Mark Branch found the net.

REUNION TIME FOR THE PITMEN HEROES

HEDNESFORD'S greatest-ever FA Cup team will be reunited at Keys Park later this month to mark the 15th anniversary of their run to the fourth round.

by Craig Birch

The Pitmen squad and management from 1996-97 will take centre stage at the event on Saturday, February 18, starting at 7.30pm.

It took then-Premier League side Middlesbrough, who reached the final of the competition and were relegated in the same season, to see off Hednesford that year.

John Baldwin's men saw off Blackpool and York to land what was orginially a home tie against Boro', before it was switched on police advice.

More than 6,000 Pitmen supporters made the trip to the Riverside Stadium, then in its second season of existence, to see their team lose 3-2 on January 25, 1997.

But non-league Hednesford, then in the Vauxhall Conference, put up an almighty fight against Bryan Robson's side, even taking the lead through Joe O'Connor.

Colin Lambert's own goal equalised before further strikes from substitute Jan-Aage Fjortoft and Fabrizio Ravanelli took the home team clear, although O'Connor got another in the last minute.

Boss Baldwin, his assistant John Allen, O'Connor and Lambert are all expected to be there, along with several other members of the squad.

Goalkeeper Scott Cooksey, Bernard McNally, Mick Smith, Don Drakeley, Paul Carty, Kevin Collins, Steve Essex, Andy Comyn, Stuart Lake ,Gary Fitzpatrick and Steve Devine are among the names expected to attend.

Tickets for the event, which is being held by the Hednesford Town Supporters' Association, are £12 for members and £14 for non-members, which includes a hot pork buffet.

They can be purchased from the Strikers Bar at Keys Park before the home games against North Ferriby United and Marine, on the day, or by calling 07919 912811.

FC Utd Manchester 2
Hednesford Town 0

On Saturday Hednesford suffered a second consecutive Evo-Stik Northern Premier League loss on an afternoon when the margin of defeat could have been greater.

Town, who handed debuts to Jermaine Johnson and Michael Ricketts, did well in the opening exchanges and Mark Beesley had a shot well saved by James Spencer.

The Pitmen had the ball in the net on 22 minutes but Ben Jevons' low effort was ruled out by an offside flag.

The home side went ahead seven minutes into the second half when Stephen Johnson got to the byline and his cross was headed home by Matthew Wolfenden.

Mike Norton got a second nine minutes from time.

Rock top of pile as Woods is felled

RUGELEY'S Robert Rock stunned the world of golf by beating the world's top four to land the Abu Dhabi HSBC Championship.

He held off Tiger Woods to take his second victory in 227 European Tour events – and a £290,000 cheque.

His only previous success came in last year's Italian Open and he had to dash from there to the US Open via the American Embassy in London to resolve a visa problem.

Now the 34-year-old is on a week off before returning to the Middle East for the Dubai Desert Classic.

"I know what I have done doesn't happen very often," said the former teaching professional at Swingers Golf Centre, in Tamworth.

Since Woods left the amateur ranks in 1996 only nine players – Lee Westwood, Thomas Bjorn and Graeme McDowell among them – have stopped the American going on to win when he held at least a share of the 54-hole lead.

Nervous

Rock did it from the relative obscurity of 117th in the world, but now he is close to the top 50 and if he is there in two months' time, a Masters debut at Augusta will be his.

"I really can't believe I have done that," Rock said after surviving a last-hole scare to beat Rory McIlroy by one shot and Woods, McDowell and Bjorn by two.

"I was just very happy to be playing with Tiger. That's a special honour in itself.

"I was nervous, but looking forward to it. I was prepared to accept that people don't generally play well with Tiger (certainly not the first time they do it) and if it turned out to be a bad day, then fair enough.

"He spoke to me before and that definitely helped."

Game called off due to freeze

HEATH HAYES were without a game at the weekend – and lost their midweek fixture too.

They were due to play at Tividale on Tuesday night, but freezing conditions saw the Midland Alliance match postponed.
